2.1 Number of teaching staff / full time teachers during the last five years (Without repeat count):

Response: According to the DVV findings, we are attaching the necessary information. Physical education, managed by the physical education director (16 hours per week across all branches), has been part of the university curriculum since the 21-scheme. Additionally, library activities, managed by the librarian (24 hours per week across all branches), are included in the regular timetable. Teachers with less than one year of experience are excluded, and the template has been updated accordingly. The departmental affiliations of full-time teachers and the appointment letters for all teachers from the past five years have also been updated.
